

HANK BAKER
Vice President, Government Affairs
Asia-Pacific Region

Hank Baker is Vice President, Government Affairs, Asia Pacific, for the Motion Picture Association International. Based out of the Singapore office, Hank coordinates MPA's efforts in the region, in advancing its member companies' interests in protecting and promoting the rights of creators in the film and TV industries. Working with government offices and relevant stakeholders, Hank directs country-specific initiatives and policy positions of critical concern to the Association's membership.

As a lawyer, Hank has over twenty years working abroad primarily on the implementation, protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights and related trade issues. He has spent many years liaising with government ministries and agencies across numerous developing and transitional economies in order to ensure their WTO/TRIPS compliance and adherence to international treaty commitments as well as industry best practices.

He obtained his Juris Doctor degree from American University and has a Bachelors degree in business from the University of Washington.
